

Success Story / Case Study

SUCCESS STORY

Hussain Ali was born on 3rd March 2004 at Basugaon Kashudola. Kashudola under Sidli Block, Dist- Chirang. He is Fourteen year old. At present he is a student of Kashudola LPS. His mother has Three children. He is the Second youngest son born to Mrs Hamida Khatun and Mr Nurjamal Ali.

When Hussain was his mother womb. She was suffered from Jaundice and delivered. Hussain with cerebral palsy. His father with a very low income has to support all the members of the family.

Hussain had never previously been to school on account of his cerebral palsy. After dip ration his parents were convinced by block resource person and to admit our “Day Car centre.” With the help of resource person and physio therapist imparted to the children with special needs with various types and nature of disabilities, through self help skills such as language training, speech therapy, physio therapy.

His parents were convinced to admit him in school. At that time his developmental mile stones were lagging and his needed a special way of teaching under the guidance and consistent monitoring of the resource person of SSA. Firstly mastered his DL activities and learn little functional academics.

He

can understand and follow instructions. There is very good improvement in his eye hand co-ordination.

Entry level: He was not able to understand instruction. He can not speak word. He was poor concentration lack of eye hand cordination. He was also not having toilet control. Hussain was diagnosed as severally cerebral palsy.

He is now learning academic skills. He also participants activity in art and song. The teachers were very hard working and motivational work by the resource person of SSA.

At present the Hussain reading in class V.

These special children of God need our love affection car and support to lead a normal life. Take to them, play with them and share your love and affection with them.

